

Public Tours of the Mapleward Renewable Generating Station

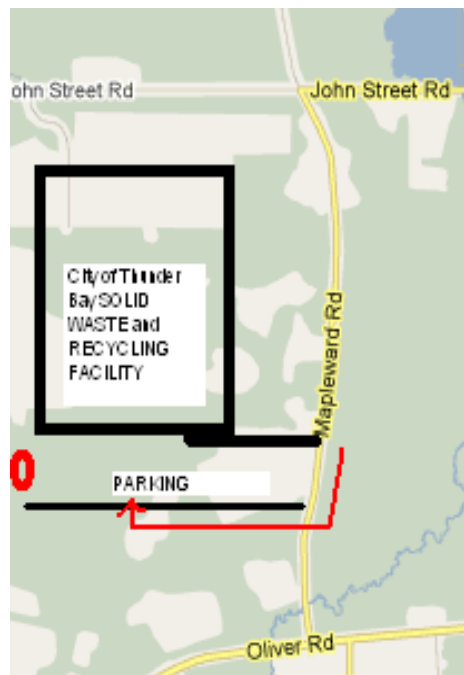

The plant was developed by Thunder Bay Hydro Renewable Power in cooperation with the City of Thunder Bay. It uses harmful methane gas that is being removed from the landfill site and converts it to generate enough electricity to power over 2,000 city homes.

Tuesday,
September 7

3:15, 4:00 or 4:45 pm

Located just south of the city landfill on Mapleward Road

Do not use main entrance, follow signs to service road
south of main entrance

PLEASE ARRIVE 15 MINUTES PRIOR TO TOUR TIME Parking will be offsite with a shuttle provided.

